NZ King Salmon appoints alternate director

The Board of New Zealand King Salmon Investments Limited (NZX and ASX: NZK) is pleased to advise the appointment of Nelson Liu as an alternate director to Xin Wang, replacing Carol Chen.

Mr Liu is a Director of Port of Newcastle. Mr Liu holds a Master of Business Administration from Roosevelt University in the United States of America. He has more than 20 years of experience in ports and logistics industries and extensive experience in global operations as well as the China market. The Board believes that Nelson's skills and the link he brings to the Chinese market will be valuable to the company.
