

Metro Glass appoints South Island and New South Wales General Managers

Metro Performance Glass Limited (“Metro Glass”) today announced the appointment of Andrew Dallison as GM South Island and Angus Wilson as GM New South Wales. Andrew will be joining the Metro Glass Senior Leadership Team.

Metro Glass Chief Financial Officer, John Fraser-Mackenzie said: “We are pleased to have two senior leaders each with more than 20 years’ experience in the manufacturing sector joining the group. These appointments are in line with our strategy of developing our organisational capabilities in order to improve execution.

“The South Island and New South Wales are both dynamic and challenging regions and we look forward to Andrew and Angus’ contribution.”

Bio: Andrew Dallison, GM South Island

Andrew brings over 30 years’ experience, having held senior sales, technical, operational and general management roles in both the packaging and chemical industries. His most recent role was leading the packaging division of The Industrial Group based in Saudi Arabia. Andrew holds a Master of Business Administration from Deakin University and a Bachelor of Science from the University of Canterbury.

Bio: Angus Wilson, GM New South Wales

Angus has enjoyed a more than 20 year career with VISY Industries covering quality assurance, technical, operational, sales and general management roles. Most recently Angus was the National General Manager of the Corrugated Carton Products division. Angus holds a Bachelor of Applied Science from Western Sydney University.
