WorleyParsons awarded continued engineering contract

WorleyParsons has been awarded a new three-year contract by NOVA Chemicals for continued engineering on the Corunna Cracker Expansion Project (Phase 3) in Ontario Canada.

This award follows WorleyParsons successful completion of services to Phase 2 of the Project.

Under the new contract, WorleyParsons will provide engineering, procurement, construction management and project management services. The services will be led and executed from WorleyParsons' North American offices and other WorleyParsons' offices.

"We are pleased to announce this award, which extends our services to the Project and continues our strong relationship with NOVA Chemicals", said Andrew Wood, Chief Executive Office of WorleyParsons.
