Change to CFO role and reaffirmation of FY18 underlying EBIT guidance

iSelect Limited (ASX: ISU) wishes to inform the market of the following change to its Chief Financial Officer role.

Nadine Lennie will not be commencing as Chief Financial Officer. iSelect and Ms Lennie have mutually agreed to this in light of the uncertainty created in the role's tenure by the unsolicited strategic interest in the Company.

iSelect notes that there is no certainty that a transaction will result from the preliminary unsolicited and non-binding proposals received, as previously announced on 1 June 2018.

Vicki Pafumi, who has been a member of iSelect's senior leadership for three years and currently Acting-CFO and Group Executive of Business Operations, has been appointed Chief Financial Officer. Ms Pafumi has done an outstanding job in the Acting-CFO role since November 2017.

Ms Pafumi's previous responsibilities as Group Executive, Business Operations including the Project Management Office (PMO), Cape Town and dialler operations, have been restructured across the leadership team. Slade Sherman (Chief Experience Officer) has taken on PMO responsibilities and Henriette Rothschild (Chief Operating Officer) retains oversight of Cape Town and dialler operations.

Based on the Company's performance over May and June 2018, the Board of iSelect reaffirms its previous underlying EBIT guidance for the 12 months ended 30 June 2018. The Company's audited FY18 results is intended to be released on 14 August 2018.
