

11 June 2018

University of Canterbury - New Vice-Chancellor

Professor Cheryl de la Rey, currently the Vice-Chancellor of the University of Pretoria, has been appointed as the new Vice-Chancellor of the University of Canterbury.

Professor de la Rey will commence the role in mid-February, replacing Dr Rod Carr, who has served two five year terms.

In making this announcement, Dr John Wood, Chancellor, paid tribute to Dr Carr's immense contribution to the University since first taking the role in 2009, leading the University through the most challenging time in its history.

More information is available at <http://www.canterbury.ac.nz/news/>

Contact

Keith Longden, 64 3 369 3454

SIGNED by

University of Canterbury | Te Whare Wānanga o Waitaha

Keith Longden

Executive Director/Chief Financial Officer | Kaihautū Matua Ahumoni