AWF MADISON GROUP LIMITED (NZX: AWF) – CHANGES TO SENIOR MANAGEMENT TEAM

Simon Bennett announces changes to his senior management team, as follows:

- Steve Jackson, previously the COO of Madison Recruitment Limited, has been appointed General Manager Commercial. Steve will be focussing his attention on Group-wide projects, amongst which is the further development of innovative solutions such as Managed Service; and the refinement of existing operational systems and processes to meet the needs of clients and candidates;
- Christian Brown, previously Chief Sales Officer, has been appointed General Manager Madison. He has a strong pedigree in white collar recruitment and leadership, with experience in the NZ and UK markets. He brings a fresh approach to drive our existing business enabling our growth; and
- Tony Staub, who has been responsible for the Finance function of the Group, on a contract basis since the departure of Nick Williams last year, will permanently assume the role of Commercial Director, where his focus will remain on the Finance function.

The above appointments report to the CEO, AWF Madison Group Limited, and take immediate effect.
