Trimantium GrowthOps Limited announces Chief Executive appointment

Trimantium GrowthOps Ltd (ASX: TGO, "GrowthOps") announces the appointment of Paul Mansfield as Chief Executive Officer in addition to his role as Executive Director and Managing Partner, commencing tomorrow, 1 June 2018. Phillip Kingston will continue as the company's Managing Director.

Mr Mansfield brings deep technology expertise to GrowthOps, as well as historical experience in integrating multiple growth businesses. Paul was also a strategic adviser to 3wks and Khemistry, prior to their acquisition by GrowthOps in March 2018.

Mr Mansfield has founded and exited multiple technology companies, including Weblinc (which sold to Cloud Sherpas in 2012) and as a foundation shareholder in Cloud Sherpas (which sold to Accenture in 2015), where he served as Asia Pacific Managing Director from 2012 to 2015.

Mr Mansfield was part of the executive team that listed QM Technologies on the ASX in late 2005 (which sold to Computershare in 2008). Paul is also co-founder and Board member at Skedulo, a scheduling SaaS product business headquartered in San Francisco.

Mr Mansfield holds a Bachelor of Commerce from the University of Wollongong.

Chairman of the GrowthOps Board of Directors, Dominique Fisher said: "Paul Mansfield is a growth and sales-oriented CEO who understands the unique opportunities and challenges facing GrowthOps. He brings a disciplined, systematic approach to organic growth that will position the company well, both competitively and for the seamless execution of large, value-added projects for its clients. Paul and Phillip Kingston have been working together seamlessly and will continue to do so."

GrowthOps Founder and Managing Director, Phillip Kingston said: "Paul has demonstrated exceptional leadership and management skills since he joined GrowthOps. I'm delighted to continue to back Paul to lead GrowthOps into the future."

Mr Mansfield said: "I am very pleased to be expanding my role with GrowthOps. Its unique offering across creative, technology and management consulting, combined with our talented and passionate staff, position the company for a bright future. The team has already shown a tremendous ability to collaborate to deliver growth for the company, and to help our clients grow."

Mr Mansfield will continue as an Executive Director on the Board of Directors of Trimantium GrowthOps Ltd. As Chief Executive Officer, he will report to the Chairman of the GrowthOps Board of Directors and also assume responsibility for the day-to-day operations of the company, its people and resources, including responsibility for the company financials, client management, and mentoring of partners and their integration with GrowthOps.

In recognition of the expansion in Mr Mansfield's responsibilities his remuneration package will be adjusted, consistent with market rates.
