Diatreme Launches New Website & Corporate Logo

Emerging mineral sands producer Diatreme Resources Limited (ASX: DRX) announced today the launch of its new website and corporate logo.

Diatreme's website URL remains unchanged at <http://diatreme.com.au/>

Features of the new website include:

- refreshed and more focussed corporate image, and content that reflects the Company's sharpened focus on development and advancement of our mineral and silica sands projects;
- more functionality and easier navigation with more in-depth information about key projects along with general industry information; and
- a responsive site developed and optimised for mobile devices, making it more user-friendly and accessible for shareholders, investors and other stakeholders.

Diatreme's CEO, Neil McIntyre said: "Recent advances at our flagship Cyclone Zircon Project have greatly progressed our plans to develop a new mineral sands mine in the world-class Eucla Basin of Western Australia, while our Cape Bedford Silica/Heavy Minerals Project in North Queensland is showing potential to add further value to our project pipeline.

"The new website and corporate rebrand reflect our development drive as we work to raise awareness of the quality of our projects with global investors and deliver increased shareholder value."
